*The 2019 Fulton Co.
Veteran of the Year Award*

Each year, the Veterans Service Office is proud to honor one extraordinary veteran who has distinguished themselves through outstanding dedication to our country and our community. This year we will again recognize a Veteran who has served honorably their country, the citizens of Fulton County and the Veteran community, both past and present.

Nomination and Selection Criteria

One Veteran will be recognized as the Fulton County Veteran of the Year. Nominations will be accepted and encouraged from the public.

A Fulton County Veteran of the Year is someone who:

- Honorably served in the United States military.
- Displays leadership and supports veteran issues.
- Is a citizen of Fulton Co.
- A person known to impact lives throughout their community.

Nomination forms must include the nominee's general information along with a brief narrative explaining why the veteran is being nominated for the award.

Nominations may be submitted by any Ohio resident. Submissions from Ohio Veterans, Veteran Service Organizations (Am. Lg., VFW, AMVETS, DAV, CWV, etc.), and other veterans group are encouraged.
